

Finger Print Analysis Of a Character

Directions: On another sheet of paper, use a pencil to sketch out the swirl pattern of your fingerprint. These will become the line you will write on for the character analysis. You are to use your notes, characterization charts, and any dialectical journal entries to compose the characterization analysis of the selected character. Be sure to include textual evidence where appropriate and document with parenthetical notation.

I WAS BORN IN A SMALL TOWN OUTSIDE OF CHICAGO. I ALWAYS LIKED MATH. I WAS PRETTY GOOD AT IT TOO. WHICH I GUESS IS WHY I ENDED UP PURSUING FINANCE AS A CARRER. IN MY SENIOR YEAR AT COLLEGE I TRANSFERRED TO A SCHOOL ON THE WEST COAST. I WORKED HARD AND EARNED EVERY BIT OF MY DEGREE IN ACTUARIAL SCIENCES. IT FEELS LIKE YESTERDAY BUT IT'S BEEN NEARLY 14 YEARS SINCE I STARTED MY FIRST JOB AS AN ADVISOR. I TOOK MY TIME IT WAS JUST A FEW CLIENTS. I TOOK MY TIME AND PUT IN A LOT OF HARD WORK BUT LITTLE BY LITTLE I BUILT MY BOOK. A FEW GOOD REFERRALS REALLY HELPED ME EXPAND MY BUSINESS AND SOLIDIFY MY REPUTATION AS A TOP PRODUCER. I TRIED EVERYTHING FROM SMALL COMPANIES TO WIREHOUSE S. I'VE ALWAYS BEEN INDEPENDENT AND I'VE ALWAYS LIKED THE IDEA OF WORKING AT THE KIND OF PLACE WHERE YOU CAN GET THINGS DONE THE WAY YOU LIKE THEM. I PREFER THE FEELING OF A SMALL COMPANY, BUT YOU CAN'T BEAT THE SOURCES OF A LARGER COMPANY. I MET A LOT OF GREAT PEOPLE ALONG THE WAY BUT WHERE I AM NOW JUST DOESN'T FEEL LIKE THE RIGHT FIT FOR ME. NOW I'M LOOKING FOR SOMETHING A LITTLE MORE FLEXIBILITY. I'M LOOKING FOR A PLACE WHERE I CAN REALLY MAKE MY MARK.
