

Title of the Book
Author's Name
Part FOUR: Major Literary Elements

~ Simile—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Metaphor—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Personification—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Imagery—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Irony—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Foreshadow—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).
- Explain the author’s purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

~ Hyperbole—

- “Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation” (68).

Title of the Book

Author's Name

- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Suspense

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Point of View

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Diction

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Tone

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Syntax

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.

Mood

- "Document the literary element from the book. Make sure you use quotation marks and document the page number using parenthetical notation" (68).
- Explain the author's purpose in the use of the literary element in two to three sentences.